XI. RHYMING WORDS.

Bed in Summer

~ by Robert Louis Stevenson

In winter I get up at night
And dress by yellow candle-light.
In summer, quite the other way,
I have to go to bed by day.

I have to go to bed and see
The birds still hopping on the tree,
Or hear the grown-up people's feet
Still going past me in the street.

And does it not seem hard to you,
When all the sky is clear and blue,
And I should like so much to play,
To have to go to bed by day?

A. Directions: Work with a partner and listen to each other read the poem above. What are the words that rhyme in the poem? List it down.
